

Children's School Student THEN and NOW

Lyndsey Billings (pictured with Priddie & Jack)

THEN

Years at the Children's School: 1990-1993 (I think... I was born July, 1987)

A few key Memories (teachers, activities, friends, field trips, etc.):

I remember learning to cut snowflakes from paper, turning the 3s room into a full-service grocery store, racing Adam West every day for the only two-wheeler bicycle, Cortlyn Brown's Halloween party and Ninja Turtle backpack, and being best friends with Greg Allen.

Mrs. Steinberg plays a big part in my CMU memories. I remember being mortally embarrassed when she separated Greg and me because we were talking while she was talking. I also remember feeling absolutely at ease with her and being excited to see her every morning.

More humorous memories include my dad always forgetting his parking card and using his credit card instead to access the parking lot and adults being confused when they asked where I went to school and I said, "CMU!"

NEXT

Education beyond the Children's School (schools, majors, etc.):

Ellis K-7

Shady Side 8-12

Brown University (Classics, 2010)

NOW

Current location, career, family, accomplishments ...

In college.

Anniversary Message for the Carnegie Mellon / Children's School community: CMU preschool is great!