Undergraduate Spotlight:
Farewell Seniors & High School Interns

Sadly, we have to say goodbye to some of our CMU student employees and interns. We wish them well in their future endeavors!

Chris Conte will be working in the IT department at Freddie Mac for a year then doing a Teach For America Program. He plans to become a teacher.

Abby Cryan will be working at our June Camp this year so we don’t have to say goodbye to her just yet! Then she will be studying Speech Language Pathology at the University of Pittsburgh.

Tyler Dossett plans to take a year off to explore the fashion world and then go to graduate school to pursue drama therapy.

Caroline Landau will be living in New Zealand and working on her art for a year and then entering graduate school for art education in the fall of 2014.

Anna Loiterstein plans to attend Yeshiva University in their doctoral program in Child Clinical Psychology.

Alex McCluskey will attend Columbia University to get a Master’s Degree in Mental Health Counseling. Then she hopes to obtain a doctorate.

Makenzie Romonovich came to us through the Pittsburgh Public Schools Start On Success Program. She will be attending CCAC for 2 years and then plans to transfer to Duquesne University to study Education.

Gabi Rueda will be working in Pamplona, Spain in the International Relations Department of the Universidad de Navarra. She hopes to eventually teach English in Brazil or elsewhere in Latin America on a Fulbright Scholarship. Gabi will also be working at our June camp.

Thanks to all of our amazingly talented student assistants. Each of you helps us achieve excellence!
