

Edgewood Garden Club

Letter from the Vice President
February 25, 2008

Greetings All,

Well, actually I wanted to become the president of vice but at my age I guess it's time to settle for vice-president! In the spring, an older man's fancy turns to Sweet Woodruff, Rutgers tomatoes, arugula, raspberries and lemon thyme. I cannot yet see or smell those wondrous things but it is already time to imagine.... My Johnny's Seed Catalog has arrived.... and no doubt I'll order enough seeds to plant three gardens even though our little yard has enough room for, oh, half a garden. Oh well, I can dream, can't I?

OK, now that you've all drifted-off with visions of daffodils in your head, here's one final

WAKE - UP CALL!

Dues are due and overdue actually. So send your $15.00 check, payable to the Edgewood Garden Club, to Treasurer Katherine Luckett at 136 W. Swissvale Ave., Pittsburgh, PA 15218. It's cold, you're stuck in the house, so sit down and write a check.

Our next meeting is Monday, March 3rd at noon at the Edgewood Club. Our speaker, Davia Davis, a mosaic artist, will help us create mosaic pots. All materials will be supplied. Suzan Lami will be our meeting moderator that day and our Hostess Committee will be Julie Crolius, Jane Fox, Eileen Long and Pat McKenna.

THINGS WE NEED! Include:

- 1) Gardens for the July 13th Garden Walk (call Jim Burkett),
- 2) a chairperson for the September 17th Flower Show (call me, George Pettrone),
- 3) volunteer readers for the primary school reading program (call Mrea Csorba),
- 4) and finally, we need to know what delectable dish you will bring to the April Covered Dish Dinner meeting, scheduled for Monday, April 7th at 6:00 PM at the Edgewood Club. Please call Joanne Kennedy or Debbie Kolonay.

WELCOME to our newest member, Dan Ridley of 424 W. Swissvale Ave. (right next to Mary Pope).
