Renziehausen Park
Rose Garden and Arboretum

INVITATION

MEET AT 9 AM: Edgewood Towne Centre parking lot beside Anna’s Ravaoli Board

From here, we will take a bus to Renziehausen Park Rose Garden and Arboretum, located on Eden Park Boulevard off Walnut Street, two miles east of downtown McKeesport.

Upon arrival at Renziehausen Park, our tour guide, a member of the McKeesport Garden Club, will take us through the perennial All America Rose Selections accredited rose garden (with 1,200 roses arranged in 28 beds plus 3 raised miniature rose beds of approximately 300 bushes) and as well, we will have access to all of Renziehausen Park – 258 acres to include a water pond, gazebo, herb garden, cutting bed, butterfly garden, et cetera. Renziehausen Park is the second largest public rose garden in Pennsylvania.

LUNCHEON

in the air-conditioned Club House at a cost of $10 will be prepared and served by the McKeesport Garden Club

by July 8th: if you wish/are able to go, please send a $10 check (made out to the Edgewood Garden Club) to our Trip Chairwoman, Clarice Vayda (1 Sunnyside Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15221)

Edgewood Garden Club
Flower Show
September 7, 2005

held in conjunction with the Forest Hills and Plum Garden Clubs the Flower Show schedule will be sent to you as soon as it is received, probably in late August.
